

REGIONAL OFFICE FOR ASIA AND THE PACIFIC

TERMS OF REFERENCE

JUNIOR PROFESSIONAL OFFICER (JPO)

Position: Junior Programme Officer
Section: Regional Office for Asia and the Pacific/ UN-Habitat Myanmar
Location: Yangon, Myanmar (subject to COVID-19 travel rules)

BACKGROUND AND JUSTIFICATION

The United Nations Human Settlements Programme (UN-Habitat) is the agency for human settlements mandated by the UN General Assembly to promote socially and environmentally sustainable towns and cities with the goal of providing adequate shelter for all. UN-Habitat helps the urban poor by transforming cities into safer, healthier, greener places with better opportunities where everyone can live in with dignity. It works with organizations at every level, including all spheres of government, civil society and the private sector to help build, manage, plan and finance sustainable urban development.

The UN-Habitat Regional Office for Asia and the Pacific (ROAP) was established in August 1997 in Fukuoka. The Office serves countries in the Asia and Pacific region to implement the Habitat Agenda. Part of ROAP's strategic role is to foster international understanding and cooperation and to foster regional, national, city, and local capacity and cooperation to enable sustainable local solutions and constructive partnerships within and between various stakeholder networks. To support this partnership-based approach, ROAP continues to promote appropriate policy and legal frameworks to enable these innovative solutions to be mainstreamed. ROAP addresses the increasing importance of systematic knowledge management, timely information flows, coherent awareness campaigns, and efficient sourcing of funding and know-how for locally defined development actions. Technical cooperation projects coordinated by the UN-Habitat ROAP are geographically spread in the Asia and Pacific region, and span the entire spectrum of urbanisation and shelter development issues. For most parts, UN-Habitat ROAP implements country projects through its country offices.

UN-Habitat has been actively supporting the Government of the Republic of the Union of Myanmar with technical assistance on issues related to disaster risk reduction, climate change, Urban Planning & Management, National Building Codes Development, City Development Strategies, Training & Capacity Development on Urban Management issues, National Housing Policy formulation, Land Administration and Management, Urban Research and Poverty Reduction and community development.

For 2020 and beyond, the assistance of UN-Habitat is being programmed mainly in the following areas:

- Assistance for settlement reconstruction for refugees after return (Rakhine)
- Assistance for slum upgrading and resettlement in metro-cities, especially Yangon
- Mainstreaming of adaptation planning and interventions to prepare for climate change (national)

- Solid waste management technical assistance (Yangon)

Additional initiatives relate to a National Urban Policy for Myanmar, focused on defining territorial growth strategies and technical advice disaster risk reduction, especially with regard to earthquake proofing municipal facilities and public buildings.
